

Carlton County Diversity Day featuring the award-winning play

BLOOM

Free!

by

Free!

BLOOM is the beautiful coming-of-age story of Lily, a young person with a disability in the 1960's.

BLOOM highlights the complicated and painful history of division in the United States as well as the powerful movements that set the groundwork for change and inclusion.

A Diversity Resource Fair and food will be available before and during the play

When: Tuesday, September 24th

Time: 12pm Booths open

1pm: BLOOM Performance

Where: Fond du Lac Tribal and Community College Atrium

